AWARD

The only issue referred for adjudication in this dispute is the denial of employment to one T. K. Mohanan.

2. After the receipt of notice from this Court, both sides filed respective statements. Later the case was posted for evidence of the union. Although the management was declared ex parte on 24-2-1982 on account of their absence, the order passed to that effect was reviewed on an application submitted by the Management and the ex parte order was set aside.

3. On 9-3-1983 when the case was called, the counsel for union submitted that the workman concerned in the dispute had settled the matter with the management. As directed by this Court, the workman concerned had made an endorsement in the reference order saying that since he received all the benefits from the Management he was not pressing for any adjudication. The counsel for union had also put his endorsement.

4. In view of the settlement of issue, there is nothing to be adjudicated. The award is passed accordingly.

INTERIM AWARD

This petition is filed by the Secretary of the Cochin Commercial Employees Association. Prayer in the petition is for a direction to the management to pay each workman a sum of Rs. 200 per month as the interim enhancement by way of an Interim Award. It is also prayed that the effect of the Interim Award may be made retrospective from 1-4-1980.

2. The Management has filed counter statement by which it is contended that on the basis of charter of demands submitted by the Union, negotiations were made between the workmen and the Management and as a result of that a memorandum of settlement was also signed on 18-12-1981. Out of 36 workmen in the Management company, 28 had already accepted the offer made by the Management and signed the settlement. All of them had received the enhancement in the pay and other emoluments on the basis of settlement and only a minority numbering 8 is still persuing with the dispute. It is also contended that if these 8 workmen also join with the majority of the workmen in the matter of acceptance of the enhanced wages and other emoluments in terms of the settlement, the Management will be ready to pay the workmen belonging to this Association also the identical benefits. On the above grounds the Management attacks the prayer for Interim Award.

3. The Management had produced before this court the memorandum of settlement signed on 18-12-1981. This memorandum of settlement is seen to have been signed by 28 workmen of the Management Company. The fact that only 8 more are there to sign the settlement is not at all disputed by the Union.

4. As directed by this court the Management filed a memo showing the gross increase in emoluments in the event of acceptance of settlement dated 18-12-1981 by these 8 workmen belonging to the petitioner Union. The Memo shows that none of the workmen will receive more than Rs. 135 per month. But in the case of one workman viz., K. T. Joseph, the gross increase will be of Rs. 100. The amount shown in the memo filed by the counsel for the Management is also not in dispute. Now the question is at what rate these 8 workmen are entitled for enhancement in their wages as an Interim measure.

5. According to the learned counsel for the Management, if the 8 remaining workmen are also prepared to sign the settlement dated 18-12-1981, there would not be any difficulty for the Management to pay them also with retrospective effect the enhancement given as per the settlement. If these workmen are not agreeable to receive the enhanced wages in terms of settlement already arrived at with the majority of the workmen, according to the learned counsel for the Management, they are not bound to give all the benefits of the settlement to these 8 workmen also.

According to me this stand is not at all appreciable. It is an indirect way of compelling workmen to accept the offer made by the Management. It will only nullify the adjudication process of this Court also.

6. As stated earlier, the prayer in the petition is to grant the relief of Rs. 200 p.m. uniformly to all workmen concerned in the dispute.

7. Considering all the facts and various contentions advanced by both sides, I direct the Management to pay a sum of Rs. 100 per month to each workman concerned in the dispute with retrospective effect from the date of the demand. The Management will pay the arrears within two months from the date of publication of the Interim Award in the Official Gazette.

K. KANAKACHANDRAN,
Industrial Tribunal.

AWARD

The issue referred for adjudication by Government as per G. O. (Rt.) No. 901/81/LBR dated 20-7-1981 is "Termination of service of Sri P. J. John, Card No. 186".

GA. 67/J.

II. The reference was made at a time when the undertaking involved was continuing as a relief undertaking under the Kerala Relief Undertakings (Special Provisions) Act, 1961. For this reason the Management had raised a preliminary objection that the reference itself is invalid and in effective. That aspect was considered as a preliminary issue and I found that the objection is tenable. That order reads as follows:—

"ORDER

Termination of service of Shri P. J. John is the issue referred for adjudication by Government as per G. O. (Rt.) No. 901/81/LBR. It is dated 20-7-1981. This date is important in veiw of the preliminary objection which is under consideration that the reference itself is invalid. The objection is that the undertaking was continuing as a Relief Undertaking under the Kerala Relief Undertakings (Special provisions) Act, 1961 (hereinafter referred to as the Act) as per notification No. 20652/E3/80/ID dated 22-11-1980, published in the Kerala Gazette Extraordinary dated 22-11-1980 when the order of reference was made. It is further admitted that this establishment is not now a Relief undertaking since the period of one year form 24-11-1980 had expired.

2. The Government notification states that all the provisions of the laws specified in the Schedule to the Act which involve any financial commitment or expenditure shall not apply and shall be exempt in respect of the said undertaking. Industrial Disputes Act is one of the Acts mentioned in the Schedule to the Act. So evidently the provisions of the Industrial Disputes Act involving financial commitment or expenditure were not applicable when the reference was made. The question is as to whether a reference under Sec. 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act involved expenditure or commitment to the establishment. Evidently the defence of the case involves expenditure and that way the reference is bad. It is truc that the Industrial Disputes Act is now applicable since the embargo is not there due to the expiry of the period fixed in the notification. That does not retrospectively validate an order of reference which was invalid and inoperative at the time of its inception. So as matters stand now the order of reference is invalid and ineffective. In the absence of a valid order of reference it is not possible to adjudicate the dispute. The objection of the Management is, therefore, upheld. But this order is no bar for the Government to make a fresh order of reference if so advised. Ordered accordingly."

III In view of the above order the reference is invalid. Therefore there is no valid reference on the basis of which an adjudication could be effected. An award is passed accordingly. But I make it clear that this award is no bar for the Government to make a fresh reference on the same issue if so advised.

Dictated to the Confidential Assistant in open court on this the 11th day of May, 1983 at Kottayam.

N. SUKUMARAN,
Presiding Officer.
